What is the cornerstone of your firm? Our people! We have loyal, knowledgeable attorneys and staff who interact and work well together. Our firm has a collaborative atmosphere, and we pride ourselves on operating as a whole unit. We have attorneys and staff that have been with the firm for over 20 years.

What sets your firm apart from others? We are a boutique law firm that focuses on providing specialized legal services in estate and business planning. All our attorneys have a masters in law (LL.M.) degree in Taxation, several are certified specialists in the areas of Taxation and Estate Planning as well as being fellows in the prestigious American College of Trusts and Estate Council (ACTEC). Many have also been listed in the Best Lawyers in America, Greenville Business Magazine Legal Elite, and South Carolina Super Lawyers. Our attorneys are frequent speakers and writers in the areas of their specialties.

What is the most rewarding thing about practicing law in Greenville and the Upstate? Greenville has a vibrant community filled with fascinating individuals, both natives and newcomers. It is a pleasure working for long-time clients whose legal needs often change over time as well as meeting new clients and strategizing how to best meet their needs. In addition, Greenville's legal community is exceptionally knowledgeable and collegial.

Talk about your community involvement: Members of Merline & Meacham have been involved in many community organizations, including the Community Foundation of Greenville, Greenville Rotary Club, Meals on Wheels, Greenville Humane Society, and Make-A-Wish Foundation.
